

ACTING WORKSHOPS 2017

in partnership with

* Four Week Sessions ****

February: Monologues

Each child will receive a monologue specifically chosen for them to work on over a 4 week class. Emphasis will be on proper diction, dramatic connection and projection. Every young actor should have a monologue in their back pocket for auditions and classes. Monologues are also a great tool for public speaking and confidence building!

Thursdays (February 2, 9, 16, 23)
7:00-8:30pm (Grades 2 and up)

March: On Camera Techniques

Each week of this class will cover a different element of On Camera work (Commercial auditions, Episodic Television Scene, Feature Film Scene and Storyboards). Each student will be filmed on an iPad and get some good footage of their work!

Thursdays (March 2, 9, 16, 23)
7:00-8:30pm (Grades 2 and up)

March/April: Auditions for Musical Theater

This class will cover all aspects of auditioning for Musical Theater. The first two weeks will focus on the vocal audition (proper audition cuts and dramatic connection). One week will be a dance call (the difference between a dance call and a dance class). The final week will be cold readings (how to learn a script quickly).

Thursdays (March 30, April 6, 20, 27)
7:00-8:30pm (Grades 2 and up)

May/June: Improvisation

This class teaches students how to 'think and do' on their feet in a fun and effective way. This class is all about Improv exercises and games that focus on rules, listening and collaboration. A great end to the busy year!

Thursdays (May 11, 18, 25, June 1)
7:00-8:30pm (Grades 2-5)
7:30-9:00pm (Grades 6 and up)
